

Case Study #5

US Government Contractor
Trusts ICE Consulting To Assist Them In Adopting
The NIST 800-171
Cybersecurity Framework

Fast Facts:

Industry: DOD Prime Contractor

Company size: 300+ Employees (Private company)

Location: Palo Alto

Challenge

US GOVERNMENT CONTRACING COMPANY is required to comply with the standards of NIST regulation 800-171. The Cybersecurity Framework (CSF) details the policies, procedures, and steps necessary protect an organization from possible threat situations government organizations and contractors face from bad actors both internal and external.

Solution

COMPANY enlisted the assistance of ICE Consulting, Inc, to make the necessary changes to their IT infrastructure. ICE worked with COMPANY Security personnel to set-up the right hardware including new next generation Firewalls, advanced management software, and compliant VPN services to meet the standards.

Results

US GOVERNMENT CONTRACING COMPANY with the assistance of ICE Consulting's compliance specialists, met the standards to become NIST 800-171 compliant. ICE is currently assisting this company is the CMMC (Cybersecurity Maturity Model Certification) process.

Industry/vertical

Government Contractors

Stellar Solutions is a woman-owned small business founded by Celeste Ford in 1995 with a simple vision: satisfy our customers' critical needs while realizing our dream jobs. Nearly 20 years later, the company's guiding principles and strategic value differentiators remain the same.

